SOUTH-CAROLINA.

IT being a fundamental principle in the Engliſh conſtitution, that a ſubject hath a right to petition the King, and both Houſes of Parliament, or either branch of the ſupreme legiſlature, for a redreſs of grievances; ſo, the right to petition, muſt imply a right to be heard, and permitted to lay complaints before that tribunal, from which redreſs may be expected. As, without the right to be heard, it is in vain that the ſubject hath only the right to offer a petition for redreſs of grievances.

With this idea of the rights of the ſubject, I preſented the following petition to the Honourable Commons Houſe of Aſſembly yeſterday, through the uſual channel, by delivering it to the Clerk, to be by him preſented to the Speaker. But the Houſe, in conſequence of a motion, having been informed from the chair, that the petition contained a repreſentation of INJURIES received in conſequence of the operation of certain reſolutions, and a prayer for redreſs; upon the queſtion being then put, whether the petition ſhould be read, it paſſed in the negative.

WILLIAM-HENRY DRAYTON.

DECEMBER 6, 1769.

To the HONOURABLE PETER MANIGAULT, Eſq; Speaker, and the Members of the HONOURABLE COMMONS HOUSE of ASSEMBLY.

The PETITION OF WILLIAM-HENRY DRAYTON,

HUMBLY SHEWETH,

THAT your petitioner is a FREEHOLDER in divers parts of this province, and, by his birth, is a FREEMAN under the Britiſh government. In which characters he hath an inherent RIGHT to lay before YOU, who are the REPRESENTATIVES of the FREEHOLDERS and FREEMEN in this province, a repreſentation of ſuch injuries to, and violations of, his CONSTITUTIONAL CIVIL RIGHTS AND PRIVILEGES, as the SPIRIT of the law, is, at this juncture, too feeble and weak to redreſs.

The majority of the HONOURABLE JUDGES, by their having ſigned their names, and acceded to certain RESOLUTIONS and SOLEMN ENGAGEMENTS, bearing date the twenty-ſecond day of July laſt; have thereby diſqualified themſelves, from ſitting as Judges in any action, which might be brought into the COURT OF COMMONS PLEAS, for redreſs of ſuch injuries, as your PETITIONER hath ſuſtained by the operation of thoſe reſolutions: And ſo general hath the ſubſcription been, to thoſe reſolutions, that any JURY which might be drawn, to try ſuch a ſuit, muſt, in all probability, conſiſt entirely of men who are under the ſame diſqualification.

YOUR PETITIONER being thus precluded from ſeeking redreſs in a court of law, he hath no other means of procuring PROTECTION to his rights, but that of applying to one of the branches of the ſupreme legiſlature. In this public and CONSTITUTIONAL manner therefore, doth he moſt humbly petition, that, from your juſtice and equity, and from your conſtitutional obligation, to endeavour to preſerve to FREEMEN, thoſe rights to which they were born; you will vouchſafe to protect him in the enjoyment of thoſe invaluable CIVIL RIGHTS, to which he hath a claim by his birth, which he merits from his due ſubmiſſion to the laws, and which, by conſequence, he hath done no act to forfeit.

By the laſt of the aforeſaid reſolutions, the ſubſcribers illegally confederated and combined to diſtreſs ſuch men, as ſhould not accede to them within one month; by not purchaſing as uſual, ſuch commodities as they might have for ſale. This meaſure compelled great numbers to ſign the reſolutions, rather, than by their refuſing or neglecting to do it, expoſe themſelves to almoſt certain ruin. But, YOUR PETITIONER, with many other men, having each for himſelf deliberated upon the meaſure, with that attention which the weightineſs of it required, in like manner determined, from principles of LOYALTY to their KING, and RESPECT to the LAWS OF THE LAND, to expoſe themſelves to every difficulty which might befal them in conſequence of the operation of thoſe reſolutions, rather, than by acceding to them, make themſelves inſtrumental in VIOLATING THE CIVIL LIBERTIES OF FREEMEN, and thereby ſhaking the CONSTITUTION of their COUNTRY to the very foundations.

As protection to men's perſons and properties, was the great end of their forming ſocieties; and as property is valuable, only becauſe it tends to the ſupport and eaſe of the owner, by his making immediate uſe of it, or by ſelling parts, or all of it, he may procure ſuch neceſſaries from another, as he hath not of his own property; ſo, to be debarred by any authority, than that of the CONSTITUTIONAL LAW OF THE LAND, from ſelling ſuch parts of a man's property, as may beſt contribute to the ſupport, eaſe, and advantage, of himſelf and his family, is a FLAGRANT VIOLATION of the CIVIL LIBERTIES OF A FREEMAN, and ſubverſive of one of the great advantages of living in ſociety, as a good citizen.

BY THE AUTHORITY of the aforementioned reſolutions, an authority REPUGNANT to that of the BRITISH CONSTITUTION, is your PETITIONER deprived of one of the great ends and tenants of living in ſociety: For, by thoſe reſolutions, men do illegally confederate to injure him, by agreeing with each other, not to purchaſe any commodity whatever, which he may have for ſale. HIS FACTOR is prohibited even from ſelling his commodities as uſual, and YOUR PETITIONER'S NAME hath been printed and publiſhed abroad, with the avowed and declared intention, TO PROHIBIT HIM, by ſuch A NOTIFICATION, from dealing with him in the uſual way of buſineſs between planters and merchants. In conſequence of the reſolutions, and publication of his name, his commodities, which heretofore were of ready ſale, now remain upon his hands at a great riſque and heavy expence; and men who have approved of the quality of his effects, and treated for a quantity and price, as ſoon as they learned whoſe property they were, they have immediately declined any further treaty for the purchaſe of them, becauſe of the reſolutions.

That the aforeſaid reſolutions have been ſubſcribed by a majority of the HONOURABLE JUDGES, and almoſt univerſally by the inhabitants of this town; that your PETITIONER'S NAME, hath been publiſhed for the end he hath alledged; and that the aforeſaid laſt reſolution, doth operate to the injury of thoſe men, who are denominated NON-SUBSCRIBERS; are facts of ſo notorious a nature, that they are known by every particular member of this Honourable Houſe, and therefore renders it needleſs for him to offer to produce evidence in ſupport of thoſe points. But, that he hath truly merchantable commodities, which he hath been, and ſtill is willing to diſpoſe of, as he hath done heretofore; and that thoſe commodities could not, and now cannot be diſpoſed of, becauſe of thoſe reſolutions; he is ready to prove in the cleareſt manner, by producing proper evidence in point.

YOUR PETITIONER having always paid a ready obedience, to ſuch ACTS OF PARLIAMENT as extend to this province, and to all ACTS OF ASSEMBLY, he apprehends that he hath the beſt title to demand protection and ſupport from the LAWS OF HIS COUNTRY, againſt thoſe reſolutions, which illegally operate to deprive him of the benefits of ſociety. THEREFORE, to the conſideration of this Honourable Houſe, doth he in the moſt humble and reſpectful manner ſubmit his caſe for ſuch redreſs, as to your wiſdom ſhall ſeem moſt proper; and as in duty bound, your petition will ever pray, &c.

Charles-Town, Dec. 5, 1769. } WILLIAM-HENRY DRAYTON.

☞ The Printer of this Paper thinks it neceſſary to declare, that it would give him great Concern, ſhould he incur the Diſpleaſure of any Perſon or Perſons whatever, by publiſhing the foregoing PETITION. He finds himſelf reflected upon, in the Character of a Juryman, as much as others are, in a more exalted Station. The Opinion of the Author by no Means coincides with his own: But, as he has kept his Preſs open to all Parties theſe thirty Years, without permitting his private Intereſt (which has often ſuffered) to come in Competition with that of the Public; as the Liberty of the Subject, and the Preſervation of the Conſtitution depend, very often, in a great Meaſure, upon a free Acceſs to it; as no Perſon can be offended at an Imputation, who does not deſerve the Calumny of it; and as the Petition declares, that Unanimity to the Reſolutions of the 22d of July laſt, which muſt give Credit to the Cauſe; ſo he flatters himſelf, that he ſhall eſcape the Cenſure of every Individual, notwithſtanding the Publication of this celebrated Performance has been refuſed by the other Printers.

THE PLANTATION on CHARLES-TOWN NECK, formerly belonging to George Marſhal deceaſed, and at preſent unto the ſubſcriber, about three miles diſtant from the ſaid town, containing 150 acres of land (excluſive of marſh) as good in quality, as any in that neighbourhood; bounding northward on land of Sarah Bullard; eaſtward on the high road; ſouthward on land of William Bampfeild; and weſtward on Aſhley-River; about one half of which plantation is cleared, and the whole, as well as ſuch parts thereof, as have been cultivated, are incloſed by ditches, near ſix feet wide, and five feet deep, and ſubſtantial fences.

There is a commodious dwelling houſe thereon, containing ſix large rooms, beſides garrets, lathed and plaſtered, with a piazza, to the ſouthward, 64 feet long, and 10 feet wide, and another to the eaſtward, the ſame width, and 44 feet long; which has been lately new ſhingled, and completely repaired, and painted; and a kitchen and overſeer's houſe, united under one roof, juſt erected, at a conſiderable expence: alſo a plain, but profitable garden; and the buildings are placed in an airy, pleaſant, and healthy ſituation, on the ſummit of a hill, from whence the proſpect, up and down Aſhley-River, is both agreeable and extenſive.

The advantages to be derived from the employment of a few hands, on the above plantation, to attend and ſupply the Charles-Town market, are obvious; and thoſe advantages may be greatly improved, as there is a landing belonging thereto, adjacent to the houſe, and acceſſible to a boat of 80 barrels; whereby an opportunity will be afforded, to the planter of a ready communication, by water, with his plantation more remote, and facilitate the conveyance of ſtock, &c. from one, to the other: and alſo another landing, and an eminence, on the ſouth weſt end of the tract, fronting the river, which, with the particular ſituation of the wood and cleared land, render the above plantation capable of diviſion, into two equal parts.

ALSO,

THIRTEEN HEAD OF CATTLE, among which are 10 cows, one whereof a remarkable fine one, that has been ſeveral Years uſed to the town: a flock of ſheep, lately imported from the northward; and hogs: a chaiſe not much the worſe for wear; ſeveral good chair-horſes: a ſmall ſprightly riding horſe, ſuitable for a boy of 10 or 12 years of age: a light, handy, new cart: cart-horſes; and a variety of plantation tools and utenſils, that have been little uſed.

The purchaſer or purchaſers of any part of the premiſes, to the amount of 1000l. and upwards, may have one, two, or more years credit, paying intereſt, and giving approved ſecurity, if required: and if under 1000l. yet exceeding 100l. credit will be given to the 1ſt of March next, paying intereſt, and giving ſecurity, as above: but for all ſums under 100l. or to that amount, the cash will be required: and until theſe conditions are complied with and fulfilled, the property of nothing is to be altered.

Any perſon inclinable, in the mean time, to purchaſe the whole, or any part of the premiſes, at private ſale; or to leaſe the aforeſaid plantation, for a term, not leſs than 3 years, under proper reſtrictions, may treat with

CHARLES-TOWN, DECEMBER 14.

THE List of Non-Subscribers to the Resolutions of the 22d of July last (exclusive of Crown-Officers) in this Town, is now reduced to 30, Mr. ALEXANDER RANTOWLE having acceded to them.—There are a few Instances, where indirect Means have been used to elude those Resolutions; but the Parties have generally been discovered, and gained no Credit thereby: On the other Hand, some Gentlemen, who have not subscribed, adhere as strictly to them, as if they had formally acceded to the Agreements, by not dealing with other Non-Subscribers, and not even offering their Produce for Sale, but shipping it off; in Consequence whereof, near all the Rice now loading for London, will belong to them, and such as cannot sell it, and go on their own proper Account and Risk: In general, as far as it is in every Subscriber's Power, the Resolutions are most strictly adhered to, for though (on Account of some Returns not being yet made) the Country Non-Subscribers Names still remain unpublished, People nevertheless act with so much Caution, that we do not know of one Instance wherein they have been deceived.

We hear, that in the Little-Carpenter, arrived since our last from London, is a large Quantity of Goods which are likely to be reshipped: And it is remarkable, that only two dutyable Articles are imported in this Ship, viz. a Bale of Paper, and two Casks of Paint. The next Vessel from England, in all Probability, will bring out no Goods whatever, but what are excepted in the General Resolutions.

The Rev. George Whitefield set out on Sunday last for Georgia.—He preached that Morning to so crowded an Audience, that his Friends were obliged to lift him in at one of the Meeting-House Windows.

On Tuesday died, universally regretted, John Chapman, Esq; an eminent Merchant of this Town.

Since our last returned, in the Fair American from Chester, Mr. Robert Stott; in the Diana from London, Rowland Rugeley, Esq; and in the Two Josephs from Rhode-Island, Joseph Glover, Esq; and Family.

Capt. Woodside, from Pensacola, a few Days before his Arrival here, spoke with the Scooner Spry, from Georgia for Jamaica, one Foster Master, out four Days, very leaky, and endeavouring to put back.

Yesterday se'nnight Capt. Young from Turks-Island, spoke with a Sloop from Okerecock for Jamaica, so leaky that both Pumps could hardly keep her free, endeavouring to put back. He could not hear the Names, and was to kept her Company, but about Eight o'Clock at Night, her Lights suddenly disappeared.

This Day Mr. Barnard Beekman and Mr. Robert Hawie, were married; the former to Mrs. Elizabeth Scott, Widow of Mr. Joseph Scott; the latter to Miss Susannah Lesesne; both Daughters of the late Mr. James Lesesne, of Daniel's-Island.

Mr. John Wilson, was also married this Day, to Miss Rivers of James-Island.

JACOB MOTTE, Public Treasurer.

To the Memory of WHITMARSH FULLER, Esq; late of St. ANDREW'S Parish, deceased.

OH, cease, my beating Heart, to mourn!
Oh, stop, mine Eye, thy Tear!
The Grave admits of no Returns,
And Grief is fruitless here!

Thus speaks the philosophic Mind;
Thus Nature's self repels;
But mine expands for human Kind,
And what it feels it tells.

Lamented Shade! dear Friend adieu!
Yet take this artless Verse;
The Muse you lov'd, that lov'd you too,
Thus sorrows o'er your Herse.

So sympathetic was thy Breast,
To ev'ry Sad appeal;
Thy Voice alone was almost blest
To mitigate and heal.

The Poor, their generous Friend bemoan;
Protracted Woe they see:
Mis'ry forgets the Pain its own,
By feeling more for thee.

Oft we behold the Source of Light,
Radiant the Morn display;
Yet, when he gains Meridian Height,
Black Tempests cloud the Day.

Thus, FULLER, thus thy Life's fair Sun,
Just reach'd its destin'd Noon;
Fate gave the Word, its Race was run;
Was run, alas, so soon!

Thy Soul's in Regions bright and fair,
Where Virtue's sure to go;
That Worth now makes it honour'd there,
That made it lov'd below.
